

Department of Vedic Studies and Indian Culture,
Sanskriti University, Mathura

in Partnership with

Sri Aurobindo Foundation for Indian Culture (SAFIC),
Sri Aurobindo Society, Pondicherry

offers Uniquely Designed Programme and Courses in

INDIAN CULTURAL STUDIES

Start Date: August 2019

One-month Certificate courses on various aspects of Indian Culture and Heritage
Three-year BA programme in Indian Cultural Studies

A synthesis of wider and deeper approach to the study of the relevant topic

A rich mix of learning materials –textual, audio-visual and web-based

A variety of learning activities – lectures, discussions, independent study, group work and projects – involving different mental faculties of comprehension, analysis, synthesis, organisation and expression

Exposure to key ideas selected from various sources, including ancient texts and the works of modern seers and thinkers, particularly Sri Aurobindo

This program is for you if:

You ever wondered what is unique about India and her culture.

You want to prepare yourself to positively contribute to the future progress of India.

You are seeking a deeper connection with your cultural roots, with the great ancient wisdom traditions of India.

You are seeking insightful learning opportunities for self-growth and inner development.

You are a sincere life-long learner interested in widening and deepening your worldview.

You are looking for learning opportunities that enrich the mind, heart and soul.

To learn more and to apply: www.sanskriti.edu.in/SAFIC