ABOUT FDP

Internal Quality Assurance Cell of Sanskriti University is organising FDP on the theme-'Learner Centred Interactive Pedagogy (LCIP) as Envisaged in NEP 2020' from 21 to 27 June 2023 in online mode with an objective to orient faculty, research scholars, teacher educators, student teachers regarding innovative pedagogy according to the interest, felt needs, learning styles, potentialities and abilities of the students. It is the policy priority of the MoE in developing country like India to attain the ultimate goal of education i.e. quality learning outcomes overcoming the educational challenges. This FDP focuses on learner centred pedagogical approaches to have maximum, better and long lasting learning with deep understanding, acquire higher order of thinking skills to use in practical life situations. Moreover, learners must be participatory in and out of the class to explore the educational resources and interactive with teachers and experts to learn more. Thus, it is the dire need to shift the teacher-centred classroom practices into learner-centred pedagogy focusing on employing content seeds instead of covering content.
